

What to do with Badges, Patches, and Pins?

Item	Shape	Placement	Example	Leveling Up? New or Old Uniform
Badges	Hexagon	Front of vest or sash First badge earned in each Frontier is placed in a certain order to form a "flower" shape (See diagrams on back). Additional badges earned in each frontier are placed on the lower left side of the vest in neat rows.		Old Uniform Badges are placed on the uniform the girl was wearing when she earned them.
Service Stars	Star	Front of vest or sash Placed in neat rows under the AHG Flag Patch on the left side of the vest		Old Uniform Service stars are placed on the uniform the girl was wearing when she earned them.
Patches	Round, Square, or odd shape	Back of vest or sash Place patches anywhere on the back of the vest girls choose		Old Uniform Patches are placed on the uniform the girl was wearing when she earned them.
Faith Award Pin *	Arrow Pin	Front of vest or sash Stack together as she moves up through the AHG program, and are placed between the AHG Flag Patch and the Membership Pin.		New Uniform Faith Award Pins are always worn on the girl's current uniform
National Honor Troop Award	Circle & Arc	Front of vest, Back of sash Adheres to the front of a girl's vest beneath the Service Stars, and at the back top of a girl's sash. Ruby Arc goes at 9 o'clock position		New Uniform NHTA is placed on the new uniform to celebrate the troop's accomplishments of the previous year.
Sports Pin *	Triangle	Front of vest or sash These are affixed to the bottom of the sash or vest (right side)		New Uniform Sports pins can be moved to new uniforms when a girl levels up as long as she is still actively participating in that sport.
Joining Award	Hexagon	Front of vest or sash This is the center of the first badge "flower".		New Uniform This award goes on the new uniform.
Level Award	Hexagon	Front of vest or sash This is the center of the next badge "flower".		New Uniform This award goes on the new uniform.

*We highly recommend upgrading to locking pin-backs
